UU WOMEN'S FEDERATION
SOCIAL JUSTICE MONTHLY READ

The UU Women's Social Justice Book Club allows entry into our priority issues and supports individuals looking to build on being better allies and co-conspirators. We're reading some of the latest award winning books as we interpret how they can be tools for social justice.

In order to recover from GA, the Monthly Reads Group is taking a hiatus and returning the first week of August.

We'll be discussing The Body Is Not An Apology by Sonya Renee Taylor.

TRANS RIGHTS STATEMENT

HAPPY PRIDE MONTH! The Unitarian Universalist Women's Federation (UUWF) stands firmly with those who are tirelessly working to defend gender-affirming care and the rights of trans and gender expansive people to live fully as their authentic selves both publicly and privately. Our faith calls us, through our principles and sources, to love and care for one another. We are bound by our covenantal relationships to uphold these ideas to guide us on the path of beloved community and collective liberation.

The UUWF firmly believes that each of us has the right to bodily autonomy, the sacred right to define our own identities, and the right to health care—including gender-affirming health care. We loudly oppose the work of those who would deprive parents and patients of the right to make the medical decisions that best fit their needs. All healthcare providers have a right and duty to provide life-saving care, including gender-affirming care, without interference from the state.

Our priorities, Women's Health, Women and Work, Women's Poverty, and Protecting Women, all support our work to protect the rights and bodies of women, femmes, non-binary, and gender-expansive people. We side with you because this our fight too.

We are in this fight with communities affected by hate, violence, misinformation, and harm. We send love and care to all those directly affected in these states, and we see you.

We side with you, your families, and your communities. Read our full statement here.

CLARA BARTON SISTERHOOD

It is with great pleasure that we introduce the new members of the Clara Barton Sisterhood.

Milly Mullarky, of Kirkland, WA, was honored for being a significant figure for over 47 years in the UUA impacting youth, families, and congregations with her devotion to the About Your Sexuality and Our Whole Lives programs.

Barb Clagett, of Sammamish, WA, was awarded for her lifetime involvement in UUA. Growing up in Rochester, her mother was very involved in UU churches. As Barb puts it, "Clara Barton was kind of a heroine."

JOYS AND SORROWS

It is with great sorrow that we share the passing of Shirley Ann Ranck, a retired Unitarian Universalist minister and author of the groundbreaking feminist theology curriculum and book Cakes for the Queen of Heaven. Shirley was a woman who dared, a great friend to those who knew her, and an inspiration to generations who followed. We are holding her family in our thoughts, and are extremely grateful for her positive impact.

Joys and Sorrows is a community space where we welcome anyone reading this to share their good news, big moments, outreach for support, or request for prayers.

We invite you to be open in conversation with the UUWF as we are all in community together, building covenantal relationships on our journey to collective liberation. Submit your news here.

MONTHLY COMMUNITY GATHERING

YOU'RE INVITED!

Every month we invite our community to come together to connect, share wisdom, and explore a topic. Last month we hosted a Women and Leadership panel that showcased incredible advocates detailing their passion for community centered around approaching our 60th year anniversary!

This month join us for another discussion on Article #2 and all things voting at General Assembly! Come with questions, comments and feedback.

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST STORY PROJECT

The UUWF is celebrating our 60th anniversary this year! We are seeking UUWF superstars and rising stars to provide histories and personal narratives that detail the commitment to women's issues and community leadership of the UU Women's Federation.

In the spirit of our anniversary, we want to hear the personal stories of people who've been part of the Women's Fed over the last six decades—the activism, education, and change-making that's made the UUWF what it is today. We have formal archives of the "official" work of the UUWF, but we want to bring those stories to life and hear what UUWF's work has meant to our members over the years. The goal is to learn as much as possible about the past 60 years of UUWF legacy and involvement in the Unitarian Universalist universe.
